For the artisan, weaving is more than work – it is a subtle dialogue with threads, colours, and a way of carrying traditions into the modern day. She weaves traditional Latvian shawls, blankets, scarves, and rag rugs, interweaving Latvian colours, patterns, and stories into each piece. Every creation is unique, inspired by nature and Latvia's cultural heritage, expressed through carefully chosen patterns and shades. The woven items embody warmth and a sense of belonging that can be carried into everyday life.
